If you wish to skip the queue you can now pre-register in advance. This can be done by paying at Reception with your application form prior to the event. We DO NOT accept application forms without payment. Unfortunately we cannot issue refunds if you fail to attend. IF PAYING IN ADVANCE PLEASE COME DIRECTLY TO DECLARATIONS UPON ARRIVAL. Normal declaration rules still apply.

Please note we no longer accept postal entries.

FAQ's

Q - My child is 12 can they compete in the 60m hurdles?

A - Please see our age specification document on our webpage or check out the British Athletics rules of competition at www.britishathletics.org.uk/competitions/rules/

Q - When will the results be posted and where?

A - The results will be posted to the Scottish Athletics Website and Power of 10 a few days after the meeting.

Q - Why is my result not showing up on the Power 10 website?

A - This may be because you did not write your SAL number on your application or if your name wasn't clearly written it may have been transferred incorrectly. Please email admin@thepowerof10.info

Q - How many events can I take part in on the night?

A - Maximum of 3 events, 2 track and 1 field or 2 field and 1 track.

Q - Can I take part in the high jump and 200m at 7pm?

A - Please speak to the field officials at High Jump and they will try where possible to accommodate you.

Q - How will the races be seeded?

A - We seed the races according to the personal best noted on your application. Which is why it is important that this box is completed.
